

Message Writing

Introduction

Message writing is a form of communication, which is used to convey an important note, in case the person is not present physically. It is used to record and transmit information to the receiver.

Points to remember:

1. The word 'Message' should be written in block letters and in the top centre.
2. A message should always be in a box.
4. The content should be in present tense.
5. Use active voice and write in imperative mood.
6. Do not use acronym.
7. The information provided should be correct and to the point.

Message for Mother: Need to Rush for Tuition Class

Q. You have to rush for your tuition class, and nobody is at home. Leave a message for your mother informing her about the same.

Answer:

Telephonic Conversation: Message for Daughter

Q. The following is a telephonic conversation between Varun and Tara's mother.

Varun: Can I speak to Tara?

Mother: Tara is not at home. She has gone for tuition and will be back only at 8 P.M.

Varun: Can I leave a message?

Mother: Oh, sure.

Varun: Please inform her that she has to stay back tomorrow after the school hours for her dance practice.

Mother: Sure, I will convey your message. Is there anything else?

Varun: Kindly remind her to bring her drawing file to the school as we have an extra class for it tomorrow.

As Tara's mother was leaving for an important work, she leaves a message for her daughter. Write the message in 50-60 words.
